It appears that our former Honolulu boy, E. C. Macfarlane, now of San Francisco, has had a scrimmage, growing out of some allusion in the Wasp, to one Hunt, to which the latter took exceptions and attacked Eddie in the street with a cane. The News Letter of March 4th, thus alludes to the affair: "The fellow Hunt, who so brutally assaulted Mr. Macfarlane the other day, proved himself to be a coward of the most thoroughbred quality. It is comforting, however, to know that, although armed with a stick, he took his plucky little adversary by surprise; yet he came off with such a sound thrashing that he is not likely to 'hunt' another editor for a fight."

Speaking of the late elections in these Islands, the S. F. Chronicle arrives at the following singular conclusions: "Of twenty-seven members reported as elected, only three are whites; twenty-four are natives; and the sugar monopoly influence henceforth takes the place of the missionaries. Sir Claus Spreckels may name the Prime Minister and the Cabinet if he chooses."

FOR SALE—The Ahupuaa of KAHUKU situated in the District of Kau, Island of Hawaii, and containing One Hundred and Eighty-six Thousand acres, together with the appurtenances. The boundaries of this land have been settled according to law by the Commissioner, and extend from the sea to the summit of Mauna Loa, including above the heavy timber belt, a Sheep and Goat Range, reaching from Kealia in South Kona to Kapapala in Kau, a distance of some thirty miles in length by three in breadth. The centre of the land is heavily wooded with Koa and Ohia timber, and well stocked with wild cattle and flocks of wild goats. Below the belt of wood-land, is open pasture of superior quality. The sea-coast line is seven miles in length, with good anchorage and boat landings, and the fishery is noted as a first class one. The Ranch Premises are situated at an elevation of eighteen hundred feet above the sea level, and command an extensive and beautiful land and sea view of many miles in extent. The dwelling houses are in complete order, with vegetable and flower gardens, fruit and ornamental trees, stone walks, water cisterns, and all necessary buildings for a rancher's life, such as—servants' quarters, carpenter's shop, tool and store houses, etc., together with as complete a DAIRY and fixtures as can be found on these Islands.

Together with a full and complete assortment of Tools and implements necessary for Ranch purposes, ox carts, working oxen, pack and saddle animals, one stallion (by "Laurel") of Sydney stock, 30 brood mares and colts. ONE THOUSAND HEAD OF MILK CATTLE, among which are four different strains of Durham blood, the Angus Poll, Devan and Ayrshire. A large number of Essex and Berkshire pigs, Leghorn and Brahma Fowls, &c., &c., &c.

TITLE UNDISPUTABLE. The offer of this extensive and advantageously situated property, affords an opportunity but seldom presented for the profitable investment of capital, either by a single person or by a company. There is room and material on the land of KAHUKU for a vast development of its natural resources of Cattle and sheep raising, Wood and Timber production, Agriculture and Fishery.
